

Election Nominations

Chuck Adams

The Immediate Past President leads the nominating committee to find candidates for Board positions. The following individuals have expressed interest in running for office, and were nominated at the June General Meeting. Additional nominations from the committee and from the floor will be taken at the July Annual Meeting of the Members, followed by the election. The positions that are up for election are Vice President, Treasurer and three Directors.

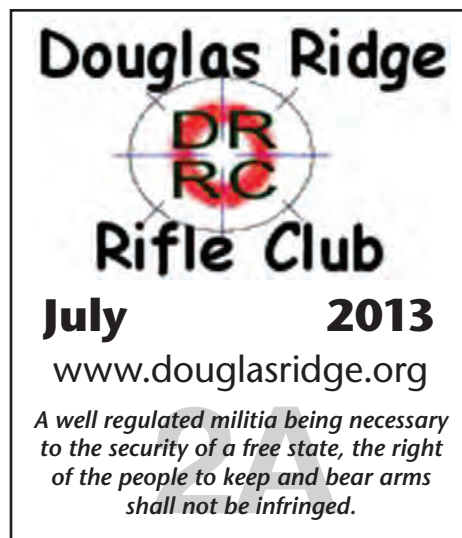

Nominees for DRRC Board positions include:

For Vice President: Joe Keller - Joe currently serves as Secretary to DRRC, having served four years. He and his wife Frances have chaired the DRRC Christmas Party dinner preparation for 2 years. He lives in Portland, and in addition to DRRC is involved in Scouting and at his church. He is retired from Freightliner/Daimler Trucks, where he worked in finance and accounting. He enjoys hunting and fishing. He joined DRRC in 2004.

For Treasurer: Christine Walters - Christine currently serves as DRRC Treasurer by appointment of the Board in 2012. She lives in Sandy with her husband Billy. She works at Clackamas Community Bank as an auditor. They joined DRRC in 2012.

For Directors: Bill Slonecker - Bill currently serves as a Director on the DRRC Board by appointment of the Board in 2012. He lives in Gresham with his wife Mary, and is a retired firefighter from Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue. He enjoys fishing and biking (pedal & real). He is an RSO, and served on the DRRC budget committee. He is married with two children, and joined DRRC in 2009.

Roger Roberts - Roger lives in Damascus, and is retired from service as an investigator with the U.S. Customs Agency. He is a Viet Nam veteran. He does contract work for local criminal defense attorneys. He enjoys travel, spending time with his grandkids, and raising a few cattle.

He joined DRRC in 2009.

Sue Nilsen - Sue was born and raised in Portland now living in Gresham with her husband Melvin. She has been around guns most of her life; and joined DRRC to get more shooting time. Her hobbies include art, sewing and grandchildren. She bakes great cookies. She joined DRRC in 2012.

Judy Bottita - Judy lives in Oregon City, with her husband Charles. She is an R.N. and is retired from a career in healthcare management. Her experience includes budgets, projects, community outreach and public speaking. Judy's interests include shooting sports, gun safety, NRA advocacy, family, poodles, and baking. They are new members this year to DRRC.

Blackpowder Shooters

Deadeye Don

If you read the DRRC newsletter temporarily closing the silhouette range, you may have thought that would interfere with our monthly shoot. Oh ye of little faith. We are just moving a bit east to the Dynamic Range. And, we can still use the knife and hawk targets on the TSB range.

So break out the powder, and get the lead out. We'd love to see ya' again on the range. And the weather couldn't be better.

Next month is my absolute favorite: The Barlow Trail Rendezvous on Mt. Hood. On July 20, our normal 3rd Saturday, we'll be holding our monthly shoot at the Barlow Trail Rendezvous on Mt. Hood, with camping July 19-21, club shoot on Sat. 20th.

Trails for knife and hawk throwing, pistol and squirrel rifle, trade gun, primitive bow and arrow, shotgun clays on Sunday morning, blanket prizes.

This event is very family and kid friendly too, with prizes for Pee Wees and Juniors, Ladies and Old Goats. This is definitely the largest and most fun Rendezvous I've attended. Join our encampment if you can, or just come up for shooting on Saturday.

Please send me an email and let me know if you can come and want to camp, or will only be coming up for Saturdays shoot. Mark your calendars!

Calendar change... our monthly shoot was moved to August 31 (this is the last Saturday due to event scheduling at DRRC)

Lost and Found

Joe Keller

Range Host Terry Bennett reminds everyone that he has any 'lost and found' items left on the range. Among the items he is holding, there is a tube of cleaning rods recently left behind. He also has a girl's jacket. And there are several ear muffs, plus various range bags and other items.

If you can't find one of your shooting items, check with Terry the next time you visit the range. Perhaps you'll find what you lost in his collection.

Club News

Charlie McAlister

Long Range Thursdays - We had a little snafu with our calendar for long range Thursdays. Members can shoot long range until legal sunset on Thursdays but guess what, legal sunset changes from day to day, week to week and month to month. When we started entering that information into our online calendar legal sunset was at 5 PM and we sort of forgot to adjust it as the year progressed and we updated our calendar. Our apologies for that. Our calendar has been corrected for long range Thursdays to show a more accurate end time based on the time of year you are looking at. Thanks for your patience on that one.

Work Hours - Yup it is already time for our reminders and requests about work hours.

Ron Carey says he can use some more help on our Tuesday morning work days so if you are available please consider showing up on any Tuesday at 8 AM and offer your services.

We are looking for one person that is willing to help score targets at our July and August Service Rifle matches (July 13th and August 10th). You will get work hours credit and it will allow our Service Rifle Director and “yours truly” to actually shoot the match and not just run the line. This would be scoring targets in the pits and will take most of the day. If you have experience, that would be great, if not, we are willing to teach you how. If interested please reply to this email and let me know.

As we are well into our renewal process I am urged to remind members that we do not prorate the work hours assessment. Members must either put in the full 8 hours or pay the assessment, your choice.

Open House - We are having an open house on June 29th from 3 PM to 7 PM. If you know someone that wants to find out more about what we do be sure to let them know about it. This is a non shooting event. Many of our disciplines will be represented so if you want to know more about a specific discipline come on out and bring your friends and family with you. If you would like to help with the open house send an email to our PR Director, Bill Mattes, at mattes@cascadeaccess.com.

If you have any question about most anything (club related) let me know and we will find you an answer.

Silhouette Range

DRRC Board

The temporary berm on the Silhouette Range is complete. The Silhouette Range is re-opened as of Wednesday, June 12th. No targets or access are allowed behind the temporary berm. For portable target stands, only use the short 30" stands. The temporary berm and the restrictions will remain in place until construction projects are complete.

Small Bore Team Finds a Home and Success

Joe Keller

The Small Bore Rifle team known as Esco hadn't actually shot at an Esco (technically Hyster) shooting range since the mid-1980's when I-205 construction wiped out their range near Rocky Butte. But the team has continued to compete in the seventy-eight year old Columbia Willamette Rifle League ever since, often through the kindness of other ranges. Over the years, the team shot at a now defunct range in Gresham, at Johnson Creek Gun Club, Portland Rifle and Pistol Club, and Vancouver Rifle and Pistol Club.

Also, the team no longer had any members who were active employees of Esco; team captain Glen Miller, an Esco retiree, was the last remaining link to the team's origins. But there were some team members who were also members of Douglas Ridge, such as John Frentress and Stan Pate. And Douglas Ridge's own Adult Small Bore team had faded away back in 2005. So, in 2010, the Esco team found a new home, and became the Douglas Ridge team. The core team leaders, Bob Stevens and Glen Miller, joined DRRC and became the Discipline Director and Assistant Director, respectively. Many other team members also joined DRRC, or were already members. The rest pay guest fees for their participation. Since 2010, the team membership has grown as other DRRC members have taken up the sport and signed up to participate. Bob Stevens said, “Glen and I as co-captains and coaches for the team could not be happier with the camaraderie and excitement we see in our teammates. We feel that moving to DRRC has really opened the door to bringing new shooters to the sport and we welcome all who wish to come discover and share in our passion for marksmanship.”

Well, the new home must have really agreed with the team this year, as they took top honors in the Columbia Willamette Rifle League season just ended. Several team and individual honors were presented at the league banquet on April 13th. The Douglas Ridge/Esco team took first place in league, capturing 54 out of a possible 60 points, and beating the multiple year defending champions Tri-County Wolves by 2 points. Bob Stevens lead the team and was 3rd overall best average shooter in the league, with a 4-position average of 396.82 (out of 400) for the season. Andrew Roland from Tri-County led the league with a 398.83 average, and Ron Nelson of The Dalles was 2nd with a 397.78 average.

Other team members who placed in the league top ten were #5 Ryan Jacobs (394.89), #6 Glen Miller (393.80) and #9 Spencer Jacobs (392.36). Both Ryan and Spencer participate in and honed their skills in the DRRC Junior Small Bore program.

Other awards for the DRRC team members include: Most Improved (Expert) – Spencer Jacobs, Most Improved (Master) – Bob Stevens, and Most Improved (League) – Levi Clark. Levi is another shooter from the DRRC Junior Program who was rated as Marksman, but jumped to Expert with his performance this season. Elliot Tukua moved from Marksman to Sharpshooter, Bill Keenan moved from Sharpshooter to Expert, and Ryan Jacobs and Spencer Jacobs moved from Expert to Master.

Spencer Jacobs won League 1st Sub-Junior (14 and under), and Levi Clark was 2nd Sub-Junior. Ryan Jacobs was High League Junior (all classes).

Position Awards were earned by several DRRC shooters as well. Prone 1st Expert was Spencer Jacobs. Prone 2nd Marksman was Don Byers, and 3rd Marksman was Levi Clark. Sitting 1st Expert was Spencer Jacobs. Kneeling 2nd Master was Bob Stevens. Kneeling 1st Expert was Ryan Jacobs, and 2nd Expert was Tracy Keenan. Kneeling 1st Marksman was Levi Clark. Standing 1st Expert was Spencer Jacobs, and 2nd Expert was Ryan Jacobs. Standing 1st Marksman was Levi Clark, and 2nd Marksman was Elliot Tukua. Aggregate 1st Expert was Ryan Jacobs, and 2nd Expert was Spencer Jacobs. Aggregate 1st Marksman was Levi Clark, and 3rd Marksman was Elliot Tukua.

Overall, it was a great season for the DRRC/Esco team, and some outstanding shooting performances. Anyone interested in learning more about Small Bore shooting should contact Bob Stevens. Off season informal practices will be scheduled. After all, there is a trophy to be defended next year.
