President's Report

Nils Bittner

May is coming and hopefully so is the nice weather. At the time of this letter, it is raining cats and dogs. Let's hope we get lots of rain this month, but only on days when people do not want to shoot, (that's asking alot!). Joe is mowing the grass every chance he gets. Everyone needs to thank Joe Cook, our range host, for all the work he does. There are things that go unnoticed, but if it was'nt done, people would notice it then. Thank you Joe, for all of your hard work.

As usual we had some good discussions at the General Meeting and it lasted about an hour. So why don't you come to a General Meeting and introduce yourself so we can get to know you. I, myself, only know about 100 out of our 1000 members. I am willing to meet every member, so come out to the Annual Work Party on April 30th, then we can get lots of work done. Call Michael Jones or Jim Quinn if you need work hours. They can be reached by reading your newsletter and finding the club directory. Also if you show up you will be treated to a great lunch put on by some of the great chefs we will have on hand. Stop by and try some of the new sausage that John Weil and Ron Lucas have made. It's quite tasty, so try a sample and they also have it for sale. Hope to see lots of new faces on April 30th. It is our volunteers that keep DRRC a pristine club.

Enjoy the club and safe shooting!

“The things that the flag stands for were created by the experiences of a great people. Everything that it stands for was written by their lives. The flag is the embodiment, not of sentiment, but of history.”

—Woodrow Wilson

“Nobody is Available Right Now”

I was going to bed the other night when my wife told me that she could see from the bedroom window that I'd left the light on in the shed. As I looked for myself, I saw that there were people in the shed taking things. I phoned the police, who told me that no one was in this area to help at this time, but they would send someone over as soon as they were available. I said OK, hung up, and waited one minute, then phoned the police back.

“Hello. I just called you a minute ago because there were people in my shed. Well, you don't have to hurry now cause I've shot them all.” Within five minutes there were half a dozen police cars in the area, an Armed Response unit, the works. Of course, they caught the burglars red-handed.

One of the officers said: “I thought you said that you'd shot them!”

I replied with “I thought you said there was nobody available!”

Are You Ready?

An In-depth Guide to Citizen Preparedness

Are You Ready? An In-Depth Guide to Citizen Preparedness (IS-22) is FEMA's most comprehensive source on individual, family, and community preparedness. The guide has been revised, updated, and enhanced in August 2004 to provide the public with the most current and up-to-date disaster preparedness information available.

Are You Ready? provides a step-by-step approach to disaster preparedness by walking the reader through how to get informed about local emergency plans, how to identify hazards that affect their local area, and how to develop and maintain an emergency communications plan and disaster supplies kit. Other topics covered include evacuation, emergency public shelters, animals in disaster, and information specific to people with disabilities.

Are You Ready? also provides in-depth information on specific hazards including what to do before, during, and after each hazard type. The following hazards are covered: Floods, Tornadoes, Hurricanes, Thunderstorms and Lightning, Winter Storms and Extreme Cold, Extreme Heat, Earthquakes, Volcanoes, Landslide and Debris Flows (Mudslide), Tsunamis, Fires, Wildfires, Hazardous Materials Incidents, Household Chemical Emergencies, Nuclear Power Plant, and Terrorism (including Explosion, Biological, Chemical, Nuclear, and Radiological hazards).

Are You Ready?, also available in Spanish, can be used in a variety of ways including as a read-through or reference guide. The guide can also be used as a study manual guide with credit awarded for successful completion and a 75 percent score on a final exam. Questions about the exam should be directed to the FEMA Independent Study Program by calling 1-800-238-3358 or by going to www.training.fema.gov/emiweb/is.

The 22 MB PDF version of Are You Ready? is available for download from <http://www.fema.gov/areyouready/>.
